

About the Authors

Fr. Dexter Veloso, M.A. is the current parish priest of San Isidro Parish, Lomundao, Davao City and a philosophy professor at St. Francis Xavier College Seminary. He earned his Master of Arts in Philosophy at the Ateneo de Davao University. He served as a president of the Social Ethics Society.

Dr. Daniel Mishori, Ph.D. is a social, academic and environmental activist. He is a senior faculty member of the Department of Environmental Studies, Porter School of the Environment and Earth Sciences, Tel Aviv University. He is the former chairperson of the Israel Bicycle Association & the Coordinating Forum of Junior Academic Organizations (Israel). Currently, he is the head of the professional team, "Water Keepers" (of Israel). He specializes in Bioethics, Environmental Ethics, Business Ethics, Controversy-analysis in Science and Medicine, Epistemology and Body-consciousness research. He is an expert in biohacking and integrative health (Firmness: posture, breathing, movement, meditation). Also, he is a teacher of Yoga and Martial Arts (Tai Chi, Kung Fu) and the author of Firmness (Firmeza): Meditations on First Philosophy and Environmental Ethics (2018).

Guiraldo C. Fernandez, Jr., Ph.D. graduated with the degree Doctor of Philosophy in Education from the University of San Carlos in Cebu City in 2017 and acquired his Master of Arts in Philosophy at the same university in 1999. He graduated Bachelor of Arts in Philosophy from San Carlos Seminary College in 1996 and has since been in the academe for more than twenty years. He is presently taking up a second master's degree in Tropical Ecology at Visayas State University in Baybay City. At present, he serves as the chair of the Department of Liberal Arts and Behavioral Sciences of Visayas State University in Baybay City, Leyte, Philippines.

Victor John M. Loquias (Ph.D. cand.) writes in the areas of Critical Theory, Philosophy of Education, Indigenous Philosophy, Filipino and Bikol Philosophy. In 2011, he received a grant from the University Research Council of Ateneo de Naga University for his research on a seminal concept for a philosophy of education among Bikolanos. Several papers based on this research can now be accessed in various journals. He is an Assistant Professor of the said University and is currently finishing his doctorate in Philosophy at the University of Santo Tomas, Manila.

Jeremiah Joven B. Joaquin, Ph.D. is the Dr. Eduardo Deveza Professorial Chair in Argumentation and Debate at De La Salle University, Manila, Philippines, where he is also a Research Fellow of the Southeast Asian Research Center and Hub. He has published papers in logic, metaphysics, epistemology, philosophy of mind, philosophy of religion, moral philosophy, gender studies, and experimental philosophy. He is the current President of the Philosophical Association of the Philippines, the founding Secretary-General of the Union of Societies and Associations of Philosophy in the Philippines, and a member of the Australasian Association of Philosophy and the Australasian Association of Logic.

Menelito P. Mansueto, M.A. is a full-time Assistant Professor at the College of Liberal Arts and Sciences of Colegio de San Juan de Letran – Manila. He completed his Bachelor of Arts in Philosophy and Master of Arts in Philosophy at Holy Name University in Tagbilaran City, Bohol. His research interests evolved mainly on topics related to media and communication studies, postcolonial theory and political philosophy.