

About the Authors

Ben Carlo N. Atim is a master's degree holder in Philosophy from the University of the Philippines-Diliman. He is currently taking a doctorate degree in Philosophy at the University of Sto. Thomas, Manila and took up MA units in Religious Studies at the Maryhill School of Theology in Quezon City. He teaches courses in Philosophy, Humanities, and Social Sciences and Theology. He is an Assistant Professorial Lecturer IV at Saint Paul Seminary (Cavite). He specializes in the History of Western Philosophy, Phenomenology, Philosophy of Mind, Philosophical Anthropology, Philosophy of Religion, and Filipino Philosophy.

Dr. Allan A. Basas completed his Doctorate Degree in Sacred Theology at the Faculty of Sacred Theology, Ecclesiastical Faculties, University of Santo Tomas. Since 2003, he has been teaching Theology courses at the Institute of Religion, University of Santo Tomas. He is also a Research Associate at the Center for Religious Studies, University of Santo Tomas. Since 2009, he is serving as Faculty Secretary of the Institute of Religion, University of Santo Tomas. His works in Theology cover the following areas: Dogma, Ethics, Liturgy, and Intercultural Theology. Dr. Basas' foci of studies in philosophy include Critical Theory, and Emmanuel Levinas.

Ian Anthony Davatos is a philosophy instructor at the Palawan State University. He is currently taking his Master's Degree in Philosophy at the Ateneo de Manila University as a CHED K-12 Scholar. His research interests include Socio-Political Philosophy, Ethics, and Philosophy of Education.

Colleen Andrea M. Castaño and Christel Kate Q. Labrador are both Senior High School (SHS) students under the Science, Technology, Engineering and Mathematics (STEM) strand in University of the East (UE), Manila. Their subject Practical Research 1 during the previous semester paved the way for writing this paper, since their adviser Chloe Nicole D. Piamonte, teaches Philosophical Research and the university caters diverse approaches in the subject. Ms. Piamonte served as their guide for this endeavor. She is an SHS instructor from UE, pursues her MA Philosophy at DLSU, and a member of the Philosophical Association of the Philippines (PAP).

Regletto Aldrich D. Imbong is an Assistant Professor of Philosophy at the University of the Philippines-Cebu. He is currently finishing his doctorate degree in Philosophy at the University of San Carlos, Cebu City. His research interests include Critical Pedagogy, Emancipatory Politics, Alain Badiou and Neoliberalism. He has published in both local and international journals. He is an active member of the Philosophical Association of the Philippines (PAP) and the Philosophical Association of the Visayas and Mindanao (PHAVISMINDA). Prof. Imbong is also a volunteer of the Cebu Archdiocesan Commission on Social Advocacies, a service commission which supports the advocacies and struggles of various marginalized sectors in Cebu. He is also the current secretary general of the Promotion of Church People's Response – Cebu, a progressive ecumenical group committed to the fight for social justice and genuine peace.