

ABOUT THE AUTHORS

Juichiro Tanabe, PhD is an adjunct lecturer at Kumamoto University, Keio University and Waseda University, Japan. He finished his doctorate at the University of Bradford, United Kingdom. His research field is peace and conflict studies. He is an author of “Buddhism and Peace Theory: Exploring a Buddhist Inner Peace” (International Journal of Peace Studies, November 2016), “Beyond liberal peace: Critique of liberal Peacebuilding and Exploring a Post-liberal Hybrid Model of Peacebuilding for a More Humane World” (Social Ethics Society Journal of Applied Philosophy, April 2019) and “Buddhism and Post-Liberal Peace: Creating a Holistic Peace Model by Connecting Liberal Peace and Buddhist Peace as a Foundation for Sustainable Peace” (Journal of Human Security Studies, March 2020).

Bro. Karl Gaspar, CSSR, PhD is a multi-awarded anthropologist, scholar, theologian, and peace advocate. He is one of the most published scholars in the country, with at least 25 books to his name since 1985. He was formerly Academic Dean of the St. Alphonsus Theological and Mission Institute (SATMI) in Davao City and a presently, a professor of Anthropology at the Ateneo de Davao University. The Ateneo de Manila University has conferred on Bro. Karl the Parangal Lingkod Sambayanan, describing him as a “champion of the Indigenous People’s rights.” His most recent book is Handumanan (Remembrance): Digging for the Indigenous Wellspring.

Enrique Benjamin Fernando III, MA is an Assistant Professor at the Department of Philosophy, University of the Philippines Diliman. He completed his MA in Philosophy degree in the same university in 2020 where he was a consistent University Scholar. He graduated Magna Cum Laude from Ateneo De Manila University in 2015 with a double major in BS Management Engineering and AB Philosophy, and a double minor in History and Strategic Human Resource Management. He also graduated Class Valedictorian from Ateneo De Manila High School in 2010. His research interests lie in topics in the Philosophy of Law, Political Philosophy, Ethical Theory, Philosophy of Mind, and the History of Analytic Philosophy. He has published and presented some of his manuscripts in both local and international journals and conferences, most recently at the Biennial European Society Philosophy of Religion (ESPR) Conference at Oriel College, Oxford, as well as the culminating conference of the Global Philosophy of Religion Project in Bangkok. Finally, he also works on projects in the banking and financial technology industries.

Christopher Ryan Maboloc, PhD is Associate Professor of Philosophy at the Ateneo de Davao University. He finished his doctorate in philosophy, maxima cum laude, from the University of San Carlos. He obtained his Master’s in Applied Ethics from Linkoping University in Sweden and the Norwegian University of Science and Technology in Trondheim, Norway. He completed his MA in Philosophy at Ateneo de Manila University. He was the Erasmus Mundus Representative for Applied Ethics, and was a delegate to the 2007 Erasmus Mundus GA in Brussels, Belgium. He was trained in Democracy and Governance at the Konrad Adenauer Stiftung in Bonn and Berlin, Germany (KAS). He is the author of seventy papers published in local and international journals. A Scholarum Awards nominee, he has written 120 socio-political commentaries for the Philippine Daily Inquirer. He was awarded the 2020 Public Intellectual Prize by the Philosophical Association of the Philippines. He is the author of Radical Democracy in the Time of Duterte.

Asuna Yoshizawa is a doctoral student at the Kyoto University in Area Studies. Her research interests include Muslim-Christian relationships and grassroots peacebuilding in Southern Philippines. She has lived in Tagbilaran City and Iligan City while doing research with her husband, Professor Wataru Kusaka. Her main published work is “The Arts of Everyday Peacebuilding: Cohabitation, Conversion, and Intermarriage of Muslims and Christians in the Southern 362 Dennis Moreto Bautista Philippines” in Southeast Asian Studies, Vol. 9, No. 1, pp. 67–97, published in April 2020. She has presented papers in various conferences and in the 1st Philippine Politics and Culture Conference held at Nagoya University on September 28, 2017.

Ian Anthony Davatos, MA is currently the chairperson of the Humanities Department of the College of Arts and Humanities at Palawan State University. He holds a Master’s Degree in Philosophy from Ateneo de Manila University. Last 2018, his essay entitled ‘Filipino Philosophy: Towards a Nationalistic View’ has won a consolation prize in the first Don Isabelo Delos Reyes Essay Prize in Filipino Philosophy. His research interests include socio-political philosophy, ethics and philosophy of religion.

Alexis Deodato S. Itao, MA teaches full-time at the Cebu Normal University and part-time at the Rogationist Seminary College-Cebu. He is doing his Ph.D. in Philosophy at the University of San Carlos. He obtained his M.A. Philosophy from the same university and graduated A.B. Philosophy cum laude from Saint Peter College Seminary (Butuan City). He studied Theology for a brief period at the Pontifical Lateran University in Rome, Italy and also completed a one-year Formation Course in Family and Intercultural Empowerment at the Loreto School for Families in Florence, Italy. Prof. Itao has published scholarly articles in international refereed journals.

Mark Anthony Niel Lataza, MA is a candidate of Doctor of Philosophy, Major in Philosophy and finished his Master Degree, Major in Philosophy both in University of Santo Tomas, España, Manila. His research interest is more on Culture of Peace, Erich Fromm, Psychoanalysis. He is currently a faculty of Pamantasan ng Lungsod ng Pasig teaching globalization with peace education, ethics and other philosophy subject. Presented papers both international and local conference. He convened an International Ethics and Peace Education Conference where Social Ethics Society Mindanao is one of the partner organization.

Maricar Feliciano is currently the Communications Head of Heavenly Culture, World Peace, Restoration of Light (HWPL), an international non-government organization advocating for world peace and cessation of war. She started as a volunteer writer under the Public Relations Department in 2019, writing press releases on the organization's peace initiatives all throughout the country. While interested in fashion and with a Bachelor of Science degree in the field from the University of the Philippines in Diliman, she found her real passion in non-profit work and peace advocacy. She regularly travels around the country with HWPL to promote peace education in colleges and universities.

Menelito P. Mansueto, MA is presently a faculty member of the Philosophy Department of Mindanao State University – Iligan Institute of Technology. He is presently taking his doctorate in Global Justice and Sustainability at the American University of Sovereign Nations. He obtained his Master of Arts in Philosophy, as well as his Bachelor of Arts in Philosophy from Holy Name University in Tagbilaran City. He has taught philosophy and social sciences subjects at FEU-

Diliman, UST - España and the Colegio de San Juan de Letran in Manila. Mansueto is a member of the Board of Directors of the Social Ethics Society. He has published several papers in local and international journals.

Joezenon A. Purog, PhD is the current Research Coordinator of the College of Arts and Sciences of Eastern Visayas State University Main Campus in Tacloban City, Leyte. He earned his Doctorate of Philosophy in Technology Management from Cebu Technological University Main Campus. He obtained a Masteral Degree Major in Public Resource Management from Eastern Visayas State University. He acquired his Bachelor's degree in Philosophy from Sacred Heart Seminary, Palo, Leyte. Dr. Purog has been in the academe for more than twenty years. His research interests are within the area of Socio-Political Philosophy, Environmental Ethics and Philosophy of Technology.

Arnel A. Morte, MA is a faculty of philosophy at Central Mindanao University, in Musuan, Bukidnon. He finished his Masters of Art in Philosophy at the Ateneo de Davao University and Theology at the Ignatian Institute of Religious Education and Holy Cross of Davao College. He has recently finished his Doctor of Philosophy in Philosophy through the fellowship grant by the Central Mindanao University – Faculty and Staff Development Plan (CMU-FSDP) from De La Salle University, Manila. His dissertation tackles the issue of internalism surrounding the theory of John Searle's collective intentionality. He emphasizes that Searle's theory has non-contradicting features with the Background concept that consequently makes it compatible with the externalist perspective as a pre-condition of a shared and genuine we-intention. He finished his research project under the supervision of Dr. Napoleon Mabaquiao, who specializes in Philosophy of Mind.

Gerry Arambala is a faculty at Mindanao State University in General Santos City. He is taking graduate studies in philosophy at the University of San Carlos where he is writing on Amartya Sen's capability approach and Thomas Pogge's concept of negative rights under the supervision of Dr. Ryan Urbano. He was previously the Chairman of the Department of Philosophy at La Salle University in Ozamiz City. He has taught at Tabor Hill College in Cebu City, the University of Cebu, and the University of San Carlos. He has published several papers, notably in the Asian Journal of Comparative Politics and the Eubios Journal of Asian and International Bioethics. He is a member of the Board of Directors of the Social Ethics Society.

Louigie Pontillo, MA completed his bachelor's degree in Philosophy at Christ the King Mission Seminary in Quezon City in 2006 (Cum Laude). He took his master's degree in Theology at Philosophy-Theology College of St. Augustin in Germany as part of Exchange Student Program. He wrote his master's thesis with the title: "The Contribution of Interreligious Dialogue to Integration and Peaceful Co-existence in the Age of Migration". He was also invited as paper presenter during the International Ethics and Peace Education Conference at Urdaneta City University from August 10-12, 2022. He presented his paper with the title: "The Quest for Peace through the Culture of Dialogue: A Philippine Context." He took his German language course at the Philosophy-Theology College of St. Augustin in Germany. Currently, he is teaching German language at Tandem Language and Training Center.