

ABOUT THE AUTHORS

Juichiro Tanabe, Ph.D. is an adjunct lecturer at Kumamoto University, Keio University and Waseda University, Japan. He finished his doctorate at the University of Bradford, United Kingdom. His research field is peace and conflict studies. He is an author of “Buddhism and Peace Theory: Exploring a Buddhist Inner Peace” (International Journal of Peace Studies, November 2016), “Beyond liberal peace: Critique of liberal Peacebuilding and Exploring a Post-liberal Hybrid Model of Peacebuilding for a More Humane World” (Social Ethics Society Journal of Applied Philosophy, April 2019) and “Buddhism and Post-Liberal Peace: Creating a Holistic Peace Model by Connecting Liberal Peace and Buddhist Peace as a Foundation for Sustainable Peace” (Journal of Human Security Studies, March 2020). Dr. Tanabe has collaborated on a regular basis with the Social Ethics Society in various engagements, including the SES Webinar Series, in coordination with MSU-IIT and the recently concluded 14th SES Conference.

Dr. Christopher Ryan Maboloc is an Associate Professor of Philosophy at the Ateneo de Davao University and Visiting Professor at Silliman University. He finished his doctorate in philosophy, maxima cum laude, from the University of San Carlos. He obtained his Master’s in Applied Ethics from Linköping University in Sweden and the Norwegian University of Science and Technology in Trondheim, Norway. He completed his MA in Philosophy at Ateneo de Manila University. He graduated AB Philosophy, cum laude, at Ateneo de Davao University. Dr. Maboloc has published more than 90 papers in local and international journals. He was the Erasmus Mundus Representative for Applied Ethics, and was a delegate to the 2007 Erasmus Mundus GA in Brussels, Belgium. He was trained in Democracy and Governance at the Konrad Adenauer Stiftung in Bonn and Berlin, Germany (KAS). A Scholarum Awards nominee, he has written 120 socio-political commentaries for the Philippine Daily Inquirer. He was awarded the 2020 Public Intellectual Prize by the Philosophical Association of the Philippines. He is the author of Radical Democracy in the Time of Duterte.

Asuna Yoshizawa, PhD is an Affiliate Researcher at the Center for Southeast Asian Studies, Kyoto University. She received PhD from the Graduate School of Asian and African Area Studies, Kyoto University. Asuna’s research focuses on Muslim-Christian relations including religious conversion and inter-religious marriages in the Southern Philippines. Asuna is the author of “Everyday Peace among Muslims and Christians in Iligan City.” Social Ethics Society Journal of Applied Philosophy Special Issue (2022): 145-158, and the co-author of “The Arts of Everyday Peacebuilding: Cohabitation, Conversion, and Intermarriage of Muslims and Christians in the Southern Philippines.” Southeast Asian Studies 9.1 (2020): 67-97 (co-authored with Wataru Kusaka). Asuna has consistently been interested in how the experiences of people with multiple and mixed identities may impact on grassroots peacebuilding and politics in the Philippines. She is currently starting to research conflict experiences and land issues in the Bangsamoro Autonomous Region in Muslim Mindanao.

John Randy A. Tuyo is a part time lecturer in Southern Luzon State University, Lucban, Quezon. He is teaching ethics, Philippine Literature, Art Appreciation and logic. He finished his bachelor degree in Philosophy at Adamson University last 2013. He obtained his Master’s degree in Philosophy at University of the Philippines-Diliman last 2022. His MA Thesis is entitled Becoming Democratic Citizen: An Assessment of K-12 Program in the Philippines using Martha Nussbaum’s Core Educational Values. His research interest are Plato, Philosophy of Education, democratic education and Jacques Ranciere’s political philosophy.

Allison Cruyff V F. Ladero is a faculty member of the Philosophy Department at the University of Santo Tomas. Prior to this, he taught at Silliman University, San Beda University and Jose Rizal University. He finished his Master of Arts Degree in Philosophy, cum laude, at the University of Santo Tomas (UST). He obtained his Bachelor of Arts degree in Philosophy at Silliman University, Magna cum laude, in 2018. His research interests are: Critical Theory, especially the work of Herbert Marcuse; Radical Democracy and Left populism, especially the work of Chantal Mouffe; and Philippine politics.

Menelito Piscos Mansueto, M.A. teaches philosophy at the Department of Philosophy, Mindanao State University - Iligan Institute of Technology in Iligan City, Lanao del Norte. He has special interests in media studies, social and political philosophy, decoloniality, and postcolonial studies. He has obtained both his BA and MA in Philosophy at Holy Name University in Tagbilaran City, Bohol. He has previously taught philosophy, humanities, and social sciences at Cristal e-College, Bohol Island State University, University of Santo Tomas, Far Eastern University- Diliman, Lyceum of the Philippines University- Manila, and Colegio de San Juan de Letran. Currently, he is attending doctorate classes at the American University of Sovereign Nations (AUSN) under the tutelage of Dr. Darryl Macer. Mr. Mansueto was the convenor for the 5th Politics and Culture Conference, jointly sponsored by the SES and MSU-IIT. He is a member of the Board of Directors of the Social Ethics Society. He is the current managing editor of the Social Ethics Society Journal of Applied Philosophy.

Shierwin A. Cabunilas, Ph.D. serves as the pastor of Our Lady of Grace Parish – Diocese of Baguio and academic dean at San Pablo Seminary – School of Philosophy, Baguio City, Philippines. He teaches at the Graduate School of Law – San Beda University, Manila and Casiciaco Recoletos Seminary, and a member of the Bioethics Committee of Baguio General Hospital. He is affiliated with the Philosophical Association of Northern Luzon (PANL) and Philosophical Association of the Philippines (PAP), and a past member of the Research in Political Philosophy and Ethics Leuven (RIPPLE, Belgium), the Association for the Study of Ethnicity and Nationalism (ASEN, London School of Economics, UK) and guest lecturer at Saint Louis University, Baguio City. He attended the 2017 Summer School Equality and Citizenship at the Center for Advanced Studies of South East Europe, University of Rijeka, Croatia, and 2018 Winter School Northern Territories and Indigenous People at the Venice International University. He studied MA in Philo., Saint Louis University, Philippines, and a MPhil and PhD., Institute of Philosophy – University of Leuven, Belgium. He specializes in politics of governance, critical race theory, culture rights and environmental ethics.

Dr. Sheldon Ives Go Agaton is Full Professor 4 at the Eastern Visayas State University, Tacloban City, Philippines. In a span of 21 years, he has been handling Philosophy, Philippine History, Government and Constitution, Sociology and Rizal in the undergraduate programs of the university. He is also a part-time lecturer of the graduate programs of the same university professing subjects like Legal Issues and Problems in Education, Educational Planning, Philosophical and Sociological Foundations of Education, Theories of Development, and Public Policy and Analysis. He has degrees in Bachelor of Arts Major in Philosophy, Master of Arts in Philippine Studies, PhD in Educational Programs Management, and Juris Doctor. He is a well-published scholar contributing to various SCOPUS-indexed journals, Web of Science Journals, and ASEAN Citation Index Journals. He is the editor-in-chief of the Aradman Multidisciplinary Research Journal. He is a peer reviewer of various reputable journals in the Philippines and abroad. He served as Director of Eastern Visayas State University Burauen Campus from January 2020 until August 2021. He further enhanced his administrative capability when he served as Dean of the College of Arts and Sciences of EVSU from August 2021 to September 2022. As a sports enthusiast, he guided the EVSU men's basketball team to regional championships, SCUAA in 2018, and the EVCAA season 1 in 2019.

Manuel I. Jarabe Jr., is an Instructor in the Senior High School Department at Silliman University teaching the subjects: Introduction to the Philosophy of the Human Person, Personality Development, Christian Faith Formation and Spirituality, and Christian Ethics. He graduated Bachelor of Theology, majoring in Pastoral Care last 2013. He started working as a part-time teacher in the newly established Senior High School Department last 2016 teaching introduction to the Philosophy of the Human Person and Christian Faith Formation and Spirituality while taking bridging and master courses in Philosophy. Last 2019, He worked full-time at the Senior High Department and took Certificate of Professional Education. He graduated MA Philosophy last 2022 and passed the Licensure Examination for Teachers last March 2023. Along with the courses Introduction to the Philosophy of the Human Person and Christian Faith Formation, he is also teaching Personal Development in the Senior High School and Christian Ethics in college.

Givheart C. Dano completed his bachelor's degree in Philosophy at La Salle University – Ozamiz City. Currently, he is taking his masters at Ateneo de Zamboanga University. He is a full-time faculty member at Tanguib City Global College handling Ethics, Logic and other General Education Courses. He is also the Head of Formation in the College and the Prefect of Discipline. He is a member of the Philosophical Association of the Philippines (PAP) and the Philosophical Association of the Visayas and Mindanao (PHAVISMINDA). His research interest is in the area of Political Philosophy, Ethics, and Education. Mr. Dano is the author of “Socratic Wisdom for the Modern Youth: Relevance and Application in Modern Society,” which was recently published in the Canadian Journal of Education and Social Studies.

Ruben O. Balotol, Jr. MA, is an assistant professor at Burauen Community College under the General Education Department, handling philosophy subjects. He is a graduate of the Bachelor of Arts in Philosophy program at the University of San Carlos and finished his Master of Arts in Philosophy program at the University of San Jose-Recoletos. Mr. Balotol has been exploring various philosophical frameworks where he has been able to publish under the themes of psychoanalysis, political economy, violence, ideology, and studies related to the works of Slavoj Žižek. He also made collaborative works with some international scholars whose works center on psychoanalysis and philosophy; one of the most notable philosophical research collaborations was with Slavoj Žižek and psychoanalyst Nicole Barria-Asenjo, where the collaboration resulted in a number of publications in book and article form. At present, he is involved in a project that focuses on the contribution of the Spanish philosopher José Luis Villacañas Berlanga, whose works on power and populism are currently gaining the interest of some international scholars. Aside from doing research, teaching, and involvement with some organizations, he also founded the Association of Eastern Visayas Studies, Incorporated, which seeks to promote scholarship in Eastern Visayas and at the same time an avenue to dialogue and collaborate.

Dr. Noel S. Pariñas, LPT is a graduate of Bachelor of Philosophy, Master of Arts in Philosophy, Juris Doctor, and Doctor of Philosophy. He is a Peace-Teach Ambassador and an Accreditor of the Accrediting Agency of the Chartered Colleges and Universities in the Philippines (AACUP). Devoted to public service, he served as the Social Sciences Department Chair at Benguet State University in 2015, as the Graduate School Dean and Quality Management Executive Chair at Urdaneta City University in 2020, and as a Senior Education Program Specialist at the National Educators Academy of the Philippines under the Department of Education in 2021. Prior to public service, he was a Philosophy Instructor at Lyceum Northwestern University, University of the Cordilleras, and Adamson University. Currently, he teaches philosophy courses at the University of the Philippines where he incorporates his readings on Paulo Freire in his practices.

Dr. Gleemoore C. Makie is a faculty member of the Benguet State University Bokod Campus who also taught at Urdaneta City University from January 2020 to September 6, 2023, the Philippine Military Academy from 2012 to 2020, Saint Louis University from 2011 to 2012, and Eastern Luzon Colleges from 2005 to 2011. He is a licensed teacher and criminologist. He graduated his BS Criminology at the University of Baguio in 2018, AB Philosophy at San Pablo Seminary in 2000, MA in Philosophy at the Ateneo de Davao University in 2008, where he studied under the late Dr. Romulo Bautista, and PhD in Organization Development and Planning at the Nueva Vizcaya State University in 2011. Dr. Makie is the author of the college textbook, Ethics: A Flourishing Life. He has also published a collection of poems. He has recorded and produced a music album in his native tongue.

Ian Clark Parcon, Ph.D. is an Associate Professor at Ateneo de Davao University. He finished his Doctorate in Philosophy at Ateneo de Manila University. He holds a Master's in Applied Ethics from the Norwegian University of Science and Technology. He was formerly the Admissions Director at Ateneo de Davao University. He is presently the Chief Editor of the Social Ethics Society Journal of Applied Philosophy. His fields of interest are political philosophy and feminism. He has published papers on environmentalism, multiculturalism, and deliberative democracy in local and international journals. He is the author of "Understanding Duterteismo: Understanding Populism and Democratic Politics in the Philippines," which was published in the prestigious Asian Journal of Social Science. Dr. Parcon is presently the auditor of the Philosophical Association of the Philippines (PAP).