

About the Authors

Juichiro Tanabe, Ph.D., is an assistant professor at the Center for International Education of Waseda University, Tokyo, Japan. He finished his doctorate at the University of Bradford, United Kingdom. His field of research is Peace and Conflict Studies. His main research themes are religion and peace, post-liberal peace, and intercultural philosophy and peace. He is a co-author of "A Critical Appraisal of Liberal Peace Theory from Buddhist Philosophy: A path towards a more humane and just peace" (Journal of the Philosophy and Religion Society of Thailand, December 2024) and "A Buddhist Critical Appraisal of Human Security Paradigm" (Pakistan Journal of Life and Social Sciences, December 2024).

Layne Hartsell, Ph.D. (雷恩·哈特塞尔 - 마이클레인 핫셀) is a Research Professor at the Center for Ethics in Science, Technology, and Society, Department of Philosophy, Chulalongkorn University, in Bangkok, Thailand. He is a research fellow at The Asia Institute in Berlin/Tokyo, and in Convergence Studies and 3E Program (Energy, Economy, & Environment) in Seoul, South Korea. He is a former professor at Sookmyung Women's University and Research Institute for Asian Women - Asia-Pacific Women's Information Network Center in Seoul. He is a research professor at Sungkyunkwan University and the Advanced Institute of Nanotechnology, Seoul/Suwon. He is a Lecturer at Mahidol University, Siriraj Medical Center, Department of Molecular Biology and Bioinformatics, Bangkok. He is also a researcher at the College of Medicine, University of Virginia Medical Center, Charlottesville, Virginia, USA. Hartsell's recent publications include "Bioregionalism as a Theoretical Ecology and a Possible Reorientation," in SES Journal of Applied Philosophy, Vol.9 (2023); and a co-authored article with Juichiro Tanabe, "A Critical Appraisal of Liberal Peace Theory from Buddhist Philosophy: A Path towards a More Humane and Just Peace," in Journal of the Philosophy and Religion Society of Thailand, Vol. 19, no. 2 (2024).

About the Authors

Mark Anthony Niel Lataza, M.A. is a candidate for a Doctor of Philosophy, Major in Philosophy, and finished his Master's degree, Major in Philosophy both at the University of Santo Tomas, España, Manila. His research interest is more on Culture of Peace, Erich Fromm, and Psychoanalysis. He is currently a faculty of Pamantasan ng Lungsod ng Pasig teaching globalization with peace education, ethics, and other philosophy subjects. He has presented papers at both international and local conferences. He convened an International Ethics and Peace Education Conference wherein the Social Ethics Society Mindanao is one of the partner organizations.

Rec E. Eguia, Ph.D. is an Associate Professor, at the University of Southeastern Philippines, Davao City, Philippines, and a Fulbright Hubert H. Humphrey Fellow at the Massachusetts Institute of Technology. He has a long line of academic degrees and profound accomplishments, beginning with his Bachelor of Science in Agricultural Economics. and a Ph.D. in Philosophy Major in Development Management which he both obtained at the University of Southeastern Philippines (USEP). He took up his Master in Public Safety Administration – Executive Program from the National Police College (NPC), at Philippines Public Safety College (PPSC), and a Master in Management, Major in Development Management (MM-DM) at the School of Management, University of the Philippines, (UP Mindanao). He also took up courses and fellowships from top-tier universities such as the Regional Development and Mining from the International Mining for Development Center, University of Western Australia (UWA), Perth, Australia, and Workshop on Women, Peace, and Security from the Center for Women, Peace and Security Studies, Georgetown University, USA.

Christopher Ryan Maboloc, Ph.D. is an Associate Professor of Philosophy at the Ateneo de Davao University and Visiting Professor at Silliman University. He finished his doctorate in philosophy, maxima cum laude, from the University of San Carlos. He obtained his Master's in Applied Ethics from Linkoping University in Sweden and the Norwegian University of Science and Technology in Trondheim, Norway. He completed his MA in Philosophy at Ateneo de Manila University. He graduated AB Philosophy, cum laude, at Ateneo de Davao University. Dr. Maboloc has published more than 100 papers in local and international journals. He was the Erasmus Mundus Representative for Applied Ethics and was a delegate to the 2007 Erasmus Mundus General Assembly in Brussels, Belgium. He was trained in Democracy and Governance at the Konrad Adenauer Stiftung in Bonn and Berlin, Germany (KAS). A Scholarum Awards nominee, he has written 120 socio-political commentaries for the Philippine Daily Inquirer. He was awarded the 2020 Public Intellectual Prize by the Philosophical Association of the Philippines. He is the author of Radical Democracy in the Time of Duterte.

Francis Jeus B. Ibañez, M.A. is an Assistant Professor IV at Bohol Island State University and a dedicated member of both the Social Ethics Society (SES) Inc. and the Philosophical Association of the Visayas and Mindanao (PHAVISMINDA). He holds an AB in Philosophy from Holy Name University and is currently pursuing his Ph.D. in Philosophy at the University of San Carlos, having previously advanced his studies through an MA in Philosophy at Christ the King Mission Seminary and Holy Name University. With a strong foundation in philosophy and the social sciences, Francis is committed to development research, and community extension initiatives. Throughout his career, Francis has actively participated in a wide range of academic and professional activities. He has served as a lead convenor and resource person at various symposia and conferences, engaging with important topics such as educational innovation, ethical considerations in emerging technologies, and the philosophy of education. His research presentations encompass diverse themes, including Paul Ricoeur's perspective on humanistic education, revolutionary movements in the Philippines, and political ethics. In addition to his academic pursuits, Francis is skilled in martial arts and possesses a deep interest in positive thinking, altruism, and spirituality. He is recognized for his dedication, self-motivation, and strong ability to work collaboratively with others.

Peter Albert F. Columna is a Senior High School Teacher in the Department of Education, Division of Masbate. He graduated with a Bachelor of Classical Arts, Major in Philosophy, and Minor in Religious Education. He is also continuing his MA in Philosophy at Silliman University.

About the Authors

Rogelio P. Bayod, Ph.D. currently works as the Quality Assurance Specialist and at the same time, the Dean of the College of Education of North Valley College Foundation, Inc. in Kidapawan City. He teaches ethics, counseling, and research courses at NVCFI. He also teaches ethics and governance courses in the graduate program of Notre Dame of Marbel University (NDMU). He finished his Doctor of Philosophy in Bioethics, Sustainability, and Global Health at the American University of Sovereign Nations (AUSN). He also finished his Doctor of Philosophy in Development Administration at the University of Southeastern Philippines (USEP).

Oliver F. Perater, M.A. is an Assistant Professor at the Department of Philosophy and Humanities, Mindanao State University – Iligan Institute of Technology. He teaches Applied Ethics, History of Philosophy, Aesthetics, Ethics in Public Affairs, Existentialism & Phenomenology, and the general education subject, Ethics. His area of interest includes Filipino Philosophy, Individualist Ethics, and Gender. He completed his undergraduate study in Philosophy at St. Vincent de Paul College Seminary and earned his master's degree at Ateneo de Davao University.

Engr. Ernesto "Bajo" C. Zaldua, Jr., M.M. is a faculty member of the Department of Philosophy and Humanities at Mindanao State University –Iligan Institute of Technology. He graduated from the College of Music at the University of the Philippines – Diliman where he finished his Bachelor of Music, Major in Band Conducting, and Master of Music, Major in Choral Conducting. He completed his first undergraduate degree as a Bachelor of Science in Civil Engineering from Xavier University - Ateneo de Cagayan in Cagayan de Oro City. Bajo, as he is known, led the Music Program of the Xavier University Center for Culture and the Arts as Director from 2009 – 2010 when they successfully celebrated the 2010 Arts Month in a university-wide event featuring works of National Artists Dr. Lucrecia Kasilag and Dr. Jose Maceda's Ading - a piece for 100 performers using indigenous Philippine instruments. He is also currently the resident choir and band conductor of MSU-IIT's Octava Choral Society.

Menelito P. Mansueto, M.A. (메넬리토 만수에토) teaches philosophy at the Department of Philosophy and Humanities, Mindanao State University –Iligan Institute of Technology in Iligan City, Lanao del Norte. He has special interests in media studies, social and political philosophy, decoloniality, and postcolonial studies. He obtained both his BA and MA in Philosophy at Holy Name University in Tagbilaran City, Bohol under the tutelage of the late Eddie R. Babor. He has previously taught philosophy, humanities, and social sciences at Cristal e-College, Bohol Island State University, University of Santo Tomas, Far Eastern University- Diliman, Lyceum of the Philippines University- Manila, and Colegio de San Juan de Letran. Presently, he is attending doctorate classes at the American University of Sovereign Nations (AUSN) under the tutelage of Dr. Darryl Macer. Mr. Mansueto was the co-convenor for the 5th Politics and Culture Conference, jointly sponsored by the SES and MSU-IIT. He is a member of the Board of Directors of the Social Ethics Society. He is the current managing editor of the Social Ethics Society Journal of Applied Philosophy. He is the author of Decolonial Turn in the Philippine South.

Ruben O. Balotol, Jr., M.A. is an assistant professor at Burauen Community College and the department head for the Office of Research and Publication. He is a graduate of the Bachelor of Arts in Philosophy program at the University of San Carlos and finished his Master of Arts in Philosophy program at the University of San Jose-Recoletos. Mr. Balotol has been exploring various philosophical frameworks where he has been able to publish under the themes of psychoanalysis, political economy, violence, ideology, and studies related to the works of Slavoj Žižek. He also made collaborative works with some international scholars whose works center on psychoanalysis and philosophy; one of the most notable philosophical research collaborations was with Slavoj Žižek and psychoanalyst Nicole Barria-Asenjo, where the collaboration resulted in a number of publications in book and article form. At present, he is involved in a project that focuses on the contribution of the Spanish philosopher José Luis Villacañas Berlanga, whose works on power and populism are currently gaining the interest of some international scholars. Aside from doing research, teaching, and involvement with some organizations, he also founded the Association of Eastern Visayas

About the Authors

Studies, Incorporated, which seeks to promote scholarship in Eastern Visayas and at the same time an avenue to dialogue and collaboration.

Ruel A. Mesario, MAED is an assistant professor at Burauen Community College. He holds an MA in Education (Social Studies) and is a former Teacher II at the Department of Education (DepEd). A former barangay chairman, he is actively engaged in the affairs of the Local Government of Burauen, Leyte, in addition to his academic duties, which include project-based community extension services. He also participates in conducting applied research focusing on his field of discipline.

Dominador “Doms” Pagliawan, D.A. is a former professor at Leyte Normal University, where he assumed various roles such as graduate school faculty, publications adviser, and head of the languages and literature department. He holds a Master’s degree in Literature from the University of San Carlos and a doctorate in Literature and Communication from Cebu Normal University. He writes poetry, novels, short stories, songs, essays, journalistic articles, and academic papers, most of which have been published in books, magazines, periodicals, and research journals. As a book author, he already published seven books, ranging from textbooks to original works. His previous work experiences include being an instructor at Samar College, Catbalogan City, research coordinator and publications adviser at AMA University's main campus, and research coordinator at Abuyog Community College. He is presently the Director of Research and Extension at Burauen Community College, Burauen, Leyte.

Arnel A. Morte, Ph.D. is an Associate Professor II at Central Mindanao University. His area of interest focuses on Social Ontology and Applied Philosophy. He has published articles in the Social Ethics Society Journal of Applied Philosophy and Scientia. He earned his Ph.D. in Philosophy from the De La Salle University, Master of Arts in Philosophy from the Ateneo de Davao University, Master of Arts in Theology from the Ignatian Institute of Religious Education Foundation and Holy Cross of Davao College, and AB in Philosophy from the Immaculate Conception Archdiocesan School and Pastor Bonus Seminary. He is the president of the newly established organization in 2024 in Bukidnon, Philosophy Society of Bukidnon, Incorporated. He teaches Ethics to college students and Philosophy Subjects to AB Philosophy students, such as Logic, Philosophy of Language, Special Questions, and Philosophy of Mind.

Janice DC Peñaflor, MAED is the Assistant Director for Operations at DLSU Libraries (Manila and Laguna Campuses). She holds a bachelor's and master's degree in library science from the Philippine Normal University and is pursuing a PhD in Educational Leadership and Management. She is an active resource speaker on topics like collection development, library technology, and research practices. Her scholarly contributions include authoring and co-authoring articles on library assessments, social media in libraries, and information literacy, which she presents at local and international conferences.